

GOVERNOR INFORMATION

Peter Dougherty

A retired building surveyor with 40 years experience divided between private practice and the public sector. Involved, for 20 years, from 1988 in the maintenance and regeneration of the school building stock of Hertfordshire County Council. In H.C.C.'s major change project "The Way We Work" which reduced the number of council offices from 52 to 4 over a three year period, I led both the property and facilities management workstreams.

Former President of both the Chief Building Surveyors Society (2004) and the Federation of Property Societies (2006-07).

I work as a volunteer in the Oxfam bookshop in Hertford, responsible for the biography section and also the branch's Health and Safety officer.
